

There was a disciplinary proceeding involving Earl Dix Secretary of the British Baseball Federation relating to an incident on July 3rd 2022.

In accordance with schedule 1 of the disciplinary procedures, the Appeals Committee issued a first formal warning on January 31st 2023. This warning will be disregarded for disciplinary purposes after twelve months, assuming no further incidents occur with the British Baseball Federation during this time.